Event Summary:

The T&P Department, in association with Godrej Infotech Ltd., has organized a training on Data Analytics. Initially, the company conducted a test to select students for the training, and based on the test scores, 35 students and 18 students from IT department were selected to undergo the training as part of the CSR Activity of Godrej Infotech Ltd. Training sessions are essential for enhancing students' skills and preparing them for the professional world. This initiative by T&P will likely provide students with valuable knowledge and practical experience, which can help them excel in their future careers.

The training consisted of Data Analytics, Data science, and details of Machine Learning.

As the course ended, the function to applaud and distribute the certificates was arranged for Saturday, April 1, 2023. We profusely thank Godrej Infotech Ltd. for training our students.
